

WILD GALE IN EASTERN STATES

Disasters Over Land and Water Resulted in a Large Section.

WRECKS ON THE COAST

Scores of Vessels on the Ocean
Fast Aground.

RUMORS OF BIG LOSS OF LIFE

Chicago, Nov. 27.—A storm of unusual severity swept the Eastern states yesterday, causing numerous disasters on land and water, and entailing enormous property loss. Wind, snow and rain combined to make the storm the worst of the season, and although much of the damage was done before daylight yesterday morning, at a late hour this morning a great portion of the East is cut off entirely from telegraphic communication.

Wires are down throughout New York, West Virginia, Ohio, Kentucky, Tennessee, and other states and it is impossible to tell how great the loss of life will prove. Many alarming rumors have gained credence, but the confirmation of several reputed disasters cannot be obtained.

New York City was all but isolated from the rest of the world a great part of yesterday, and last night few wires were working into the eastern city.

Wrecks on Lake Erie.

On Lake Erie the gale was severe, a number of vessels being wrecked or driven ashore. Twenty-foot waves swept in from the lake, causing serious damage to wharves and buildings along the waterfront. At Lorain, O., the heaviest sea in many years destroyed the government pier, threatening to ruin the harbor.

Break in the Erie Canal.

A section of the wall of the Erie canal near Rome, N. Y., was broken, letting the water out of the sixty-mile level. All vessels in this section of the canal will be left on the bottom where they are until the damage is repaired and the canal refilled.

The water works reservoir near Chautauque, O., broke and the flood swept down on the town, one mile away, destroying a number of buildings and flooding the city.

Throughout Ohio and West Virginia all streams were flooded and overflowed their banks carrying away bridges and trestles, severely interfering with railroad traffic.

Rumors of West Virginia Wreck.

During last evening rumors of a railway disaster in West Virginia in which 200 persons were said to have perished spread through the country, but advises this morning indicate that the train is safe. A landslide near Hinton, W. Va., covered the track with earth, and the report was that a Chesapeake and Ohio train struck it and had been hurled into the Green River. Wires were gone and it was hours before direct news could be obtained. Officials of the railway at 1 p. m. said they had dispatches showing that the train had stopped in time and was delayed by the landslide.

Loss on Great Lakes.

Two schooners grounded on the outer bar near Cedar Point, O., and, it is feared, will prove total losses. The steamer City of Berlin went ashore on Point Abino, near Buffalo, N. Y. Fears are felt for the safety of many vessels due at ports on Lake Erie which failed to arrive yesterday and last night.

Snow in New York.

The snow in New York state delayed trains in all directions and tore down telephone, telegraph, and many electric light wires. Street car traffic in many cities was blockaded.

GREAT OVATION TO SARAH BERNHARDT

New York Theatrical People Wild
Over the French Actress—Julia
Marlowe at St. Louis.

New York, Nov. 27.—Mme. Sara Bernhardt was given a magnificent ovation by a great audience at the Garden theatre, where she made her appearance last night with M. Constant Coquelin in Rostand's famous play of "L'Aiglon."

It was the first time that the play was presented in its entirety in this country. The performance was a success and the great French actress and her fellow actor scored splendid triumphs.

The support of the two stars was excellent and the presentation of the play was the most perfect ever witnessed in America.

St. Louis, Nov. 27.—Julia Marlowe achieved a great personal success last night as Mary Tudor in Charles Major's play, "When Knighthood Was in Flower." A brilliant and splendid audience, composed of the St. Louis four hundred with delegations added from Chicago, Indianapolis and elsewhere applauded the fair lady to the echo, enjoyed the brilliant scenes in a demonstrative manner and called Miss Marlowe to the curtain so many times that no doubt remained as to the general success of the play and the individual triumph of the actress.

HENRY C. PAYNE DEPARTS EAST.

Story of His Going into the Cabinet
One of a Series of Rumors.

Milwaukee, Wis., Nov. 27.—Henry C. Payne will leave for the east next week, where he will probably remain during the winter. It is announced that it has not been decided whether or not he is to go into President McKinley's cabinet, but this is looked upon here as merely one of a series of Payne rumors that has been running for several years. His health is said to be greatly improved.

SENATOR C. K. DAVIS IS SLOWLY SINKING

Physicians Have Lost All Hope of Patient's Recovery from His Illness.

St. Paul, Minn., Nov. 27.—Senator Davis is still alive this morning, but he is slowly sinking.

The physicians in attendance are gradually giving up hope of his recovery, and his symptoms are becoming more discouraging every hour.

Last night showed a recurrence of the delirium of Friday night. He was unable to take much nourishment and there was even difficulty in administering the necessary medicines. When not delirious he sank into a stupor and seemed little conscious of what was passing about him.

SUGAR BEET PLANT WILL BE OPERATED

Concern at Menomonee Falls, Wis.,
Has Been Rejuvenated, and Will Run Next Season.

Menomonee Falls, Wis., Nov. 27.—A meeting of the new owners of the Menomonee Falls beet sugar plant was held at the mills, which was attended by the officers of the new company and farmers from the surrounding section. The officers stated that the mill would be operated to its fullest capacity if the beets would be furnished by the farmers. The latter were not anxious to enter into beet raising again after the experience they had with the first owners of the mill. The company offered to furnish a bond of $25,000 for the performance of their agreements with the farmers and suggested that a committee of the farmers be selected to investigate the finances of the new corporation. A schedule of prices for beets, depending upon the amount of sugar in each lot was given to the farmers. It ranges from $4 per ton for 12 per cent beets to $5 per ton for 16 per cent beets.

DIVORCE RECORDS ARE ALL BROKEN

Some Fifty Matrimonial Bonds Are Severed in One Day in the City of St. Louis.

St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 27.—Poor little over-worked cupid was battered and hammered and twisted out of recognition today by four austere judges of the circuit court, and while the blows were being showered upon him, the judges were piling up the extraordinary hearing of divorce cases to the total of 100 in one day. Of this number fifty were granted. This breaks all records for St. Louis as the greatest number heretofore heard in a single day had been seventy-five, and the largest number separated in a day thirty.

CORN HAS REACHED FIFTY CENT MARK

Phillips Sets the Chicago Pit Wild—Farmers Rushing Corn to the Market

Chicago, Nov. 27.—November corn on the board of trade this morning reached the figure promised by Phillips. Soon after the opening it touched 51, but later led on by Phillips it went back to 49 1/2.

Chicago, Nov. 27.—Corn was put up to 50 cents for November yesterday by George H. Phillips who has absolute control of the market for this month's delivery. He started it at 46 cents and pushed the price up a half to a cent a jump until it reached 49 cents.

Several small shorts came in at that point. The next step was 49 1/2 cents, where Ware & Leland took 50,000 bushels from Phillips. Then to make the pit more excited, H. H. Carr, who poses as the farmers' friend, came in and paid 50 cents for a 5,000 bushel lot. He got it from Phillips and those who watched the game thought that it was played for effect.

The 50-cent mark set the pit wild for a few minutes and Logan came in and took 50,000 from the happy corn king. In all 70,000 bushels were sold by him at that price. To get ready for another shake up, Phillips forced the price down to 47 cents, and scared out a few small holders.

TERMS OF THE TREATY ARE NOT LIKED

Washington Cabinet Said To Be Opposed To Preliminary Terms Fixed for China.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 27.—Minister Conger has advised the state department of the agreement under a preliminary treaty made between the ministers at Peking with a view of settling the Chinese question, and a copy of it has been transmitted to the home governments for action.

Some of the proposals contained in the treaty will not meet with the approval of this government. President McKinley has already declined to assent to the proposal to maintain a guard between Tien Tsin and Peking, and if he should agree to this proposition at all it would be on condition that it was sanctioned by congress.

Neither will the president agree to the raising of the forts. Some of the other proposals of the powers will be acceptable to the United States. This government is in favor of punishing the Chinese who may be designated by the representatives at Peking as guilty of inciting the Boxers, but the United States will not agree to a wholesale slaughter. Neither will it agree to the exaction of an indemnity from China which the government cannot pay.

KITCHNER'S PLAN TO CRUSH THE BOERS

Transvaal Will Be Divided Into Districts and Patrolled By Mobile Forces.

London, Nov. 27.—Details of Kitchener's plan of operations against the Boers are cabled by the Daily Mail's Pietermaritzburg correspondent who says that the new colonies are to be divided into circumscribed areas and a mobile force apportioned to each with infantry to keep open lines of communication. All Boers and neutrals captured are to be taken to the coast and kept there until the country is cleared. The work is expected to be long and arduous, lasting possibly for years and certainly for months. The report that Lord Roberts has asked for 20,000 more regulars to relieve the volunteers and the yeomanry is believed to be quite probable.

ST. PAUL ROAD WILL SPEND $3,000,000

New Bonds Issued and the Money Will Be Used In Improving the Property.

Chicago, Ill., Nov. 27.—It was announced today that the directors of the C. M. & St. P. R. R. had decided to issue $3,000,000 of new bonds to provide the means of new improvements. The officials of the road say that the money is to be used for the physical improvements of the present lines and to provide for additional equipment which is badly needed on account of the steadily increasing business of the road. A large amount of double tracking is also to be done, but no new extensions of any importance are contemplated.

GROWTH OF THE U. S. POSTAL SERVICE

Washington, D. C., Nov. 27.—Following is an abstract of the annual report of the Fourth Assistant Postmaster General for the fiscal year ended June 30, 1900:

The work of the division of appointments was somewhat heavier than during the preceding year. The total number of appointments for 1899 was 14,604, while for 1900 they amounted to 15,142. This increase was caused by the increase in the number of establishments, and the number of postoffices advanced from the fourth class to the third class, or presidential grade.

There were 15,142 appointments made during the year, 4,435 being of the fourth class and 707 being presidential.

There were 3,800 postoffices established during the year, an increase over last year of 665.

MAMMOTH CAVE IN WISCONSIN.

Discovery Is Made near St. Joseph's Ridge—End Is Not Found.

La Crosse, Wis., Nov. 27.—Jacob Ritter of St. Joseph's Ridge, this county, reports the discovery of a mammoth cave in the hills near his home. Mr. Ritter and two other men have partly explored the cavern. After entering the first opening from the outside one enters a chamber at least fourteen rods long and in the neighborhood of forty feet high, after which there is another of the same height and two rods longer. Between them is a huge rock, under which it is necessary to crawl in order to get from one into the other. The party was in the cave two and a half hours and did not then find the end.

Wreck Report Is Untrue.

FEDERAL CAVALRY MAY FIGHT INDIANS

Colorado Governor, Refused Aid by the Nation, Prepares for War with Marauding Redmen.

Denver, Col., Nov. 27.—Adjutant General Overmeyer today wired Troop A, cavalry, at Grand Junction, to be in readiness for an immediate call in case Game Commissioner Johnson's force should not be equal to the Indians in the White River district. This troop is known as "Overmeyer's Rough Riders," and is made up of pioneers, cowboys and crack shots.

Fear is expressed at the Capitol that Commissioner Johnson will make the attack upon the Indians against overwhelming odds.

Rifle, Colo., Nov. 27.—Commissioner Johnson and his deputies arrived at Rifle last night and proceeded to Meeker by stage today. It is a forty-five mile ride. Old-timers predict trouble before the Indians are returned to their reservations.

FUTURE OF BADGER STATE DEMOCRACY

Meeting Will Be Held in Milwaukee This Afternoon to Consider Ways and Means.

Milwaukee, Wis., Nov. 27.—The democratic state central committee will hold a meeting at the Plankinton house this afternoon, when Chairman Warden will inform the members that it cost exactly $11,000 to conduct the campaign that resulted in the annihilation of the party in this state by a plurality of 106,002 for McKinley.

Hundreds of Wisconsin democrats are talking of the reorganization of the party, while many of the wheelhorses are still determined to follow Bryan if he desires to lead. The future of democracy or Bryanism will probably be discussed at the meeting, if enough members get together to hold a meeting.

BOERS PROPOSE TO TAKE FRESH HEART

Preparing to Strike Again on the Borders of Cape Colony—Repulsed by Gen. Clement.

London, Nov. 27.—A dispatch from Pretoria says that the Boers propose to strike again on the borders of Cape Colony. They seem to be taking fresh heart and are extremely energetic in every part of the Transvaal and Orange River colony.

He also reports unsuccessful opposition to Hart's march along Gatzrand by four hundred Boers. The British casualties were few.

FREEDOM FOR CUBA SOON AS POSSIBLE

President McKinley Has Completed His Message to Congress.

TO HOLD PHILIPPINES

Open Door in China and for the Hay-Pauncfote Plan to Build Nicaragua Canal.

KEYNOTES OF THE MESSAGE

Washington, Nov. 27.—President McKinley has completed his message to congress.

Keystone of the Message.

The keynote of the message is the question of the Philippines. Congress will have its attention directed to the fact that the islands are now actually controlled by a civil commission, with Judge Taft at its head. The existence of a state of insurrection will be practically ignored by the announcement that the trouble in the islands is now only a degenerate species of guerrilla warfare, and the firm policy will be announced to hold the islands as part of United States territory. An emergency government of a liberal home-rule character will be recommended.

The position of the president on the whole Chinese question as disclosed in the message will be found to be an appeal to congress for ample support in his demand that whatever is the result in the Chinese empire an open door to American commerce shall always be maintained. There will be necessarily a description of the terrible trial to which Minister Conger and his associates were subjected and a sketchy report of the brilliant service of the American troops on Chinese soil.

Trusts to Be Dealt With.

Attention again will be called to the fact that it appears to be impossible to secure from the states uniform legislation for the regulation of trusts, and the suggestion will be renewed, therefore, that congress should take such action within its constitutional power as may be necessary to make a proper discrimination between what is injurious and what is useful and necessary in business operations.

The message will show the pressing necessity for the continued use of a comparatively large army for some time to come. It will be asserted that with Porto Rico, Hawaii, the Philippines and even the Nicaraguan Canal to be guarded the necessity for a larger contingent of regular soldiers becomes apparent.

The president will call attention directly to the fact that the volunteers now in the Philippines must be withdrawn within the next six months and that their places must necessarily be filled before that time.

Freedom for Cuba.

There will be a distinct promise in the message, unless all signs fail, that it is the purpose of the president to turn over the island to the Cubans soon, and the hope will be expressed that before another message is written a new and independent nation will have been created in the western hemisphere.

Regarding the treatment of the Nicaraguan canal project, there is considerable difference of opinion as to the extent to which the president will feel justified in recommending the canal scheme. As to his approval of the general project of building a canal, there is no doubt, and he will make his position entirely clear in that regard. The president is in favor of the Hay-Pauncfote treaty and will not hesitate to say as much in an indirect manner, although as the treaty remains unacted upon by the senate he cannot go into the subject to any great extent.

BRITISH WANT 50,000 HORSES

To Be Purchased in This Country and Used for Policing the Transvaal.

New York, Nov. 28.—Horses to the number of 50,000 are to be purchased in this country in the next six months by agents of the British government for the use of Lord Kitchener's forces in policing the Transvaal and Orange Free State. This news has been announced by John S. Bratton of St. Louis, who has supplied, directly and indirectly, to the British army, in the last two years, many horses suitable for cavalry use. He has received a telegram from one of his managers stating that the British military purchasing agent will be at his stock yard this week to select saddle horses for immediate shipment from New Orleans to Durban. Mr. Bratton's brother is a member of parliament from the liberal constituency of Magheragh, County Tyrone, Ireland.

Janesville High School Notes

SCIENCES IN SCHOOL.

In assigning particular branches more or less prominent places in the high school curriculum we must judge from a two fold criterion—their power to afford mental discipline and the practical value contained in the information per se.

In our own discussion of the sciences it seems useless to devote much time to the utility side of the question in these days of steam and electricity, of agriculture and manufacturing chemistry as well as applied mechanics. No one is bold enough to deny the utility of scientific studies.

We may with propriety say something in reference to the studies of nature because superstition still lingers in some minds that no subjects, are disciplinary except languages and mathematics. Students are trained in the perceptive faculty because of the necessity of observing and describing natural phenomena. The description of the leaves which are falling by the myriads demands perspicuity and precision of expression which will be of life long value to the possessor.

The training of the powers of observation and discipline is accompanied in the natural history sciences by that of comparison and classification which is so useful in the most of our professions. Indeed we may say that the science of medicine is made up of the results of comparisons classified by every writer on such subjects, so that when the physician prescribes quinine for any ailment it is because he has read the testimony of others who have made comparisons on the behavior of many drugs in such cases and have concluded as the result of such comparisons that quinine can be classified as the best drug to use.

No student can make the comparisons necessary in the study of botany or zoology without acquiring a more systematic habit from that whatever subject he may engage his attention. Let the student distinguish the mammalian character of the whale under its fish-like guise and he becomes a sounder thinker as the result.

The science of mathematics is often quoted as forming the ne plus ultra of reasoning and discipline, but to the student of science Darwin's "Origin of the Species" is as good logic as elementary geometry.

Scientists' must of necessity be good reasoners, because of the fact that their utterances are always challenged by the observations of an who read and think. There is no line of thought which is compelled to run the gauntlet of so many close observers and bright minds as that of scientific research of today.

In our high school, laboratories are provided for the discipline of the powers of observation in the studies of chemistry, physics and biology. Every laboratory experiment ought to be and is an exercise in reasoning as well as observation.

Acquaintance with nature always develops the aesthetic side of one's personality and we cannot help the growth of our admiration and reverence for the wonderful beauties of nature as they are unfolded to us through the telescope and microscope. To a lover of poetry there is abundant material inspired by the imagination coupled with observation of the rich stores of nature's beauty.

Scientific studies do not stop with landscape painting or the poetry of nature—they have a wholesome influence on man's moral nature. Literature and art may be suggestive of the baser passions, but a comparative study of biography will reveal very little immorality among scientists, less probably than among literary or professional men of equal intellectual ability.

Enough has been said I think to warrant a place for the science in our educational system.

Beginning with the scholar in the grades, we find a little nature study is given him, but no actual science is taught until the high school is reached, and as a very small percent of school children ever get to the high school we realize that science is rarely studied by the average man or woman. This is to be deplored the more when we realize the amount of pleasure and comfort the pursuit of these studies furnishes to mankind.

and it is important that we provide our population some means of acquaintance with the branches of knowledge on which their welfare so largely depends.

The perceptive faculties are the first to develop in a normal child; his first questions are relative to the external world. The early development of these faculties [if he has not been snubbed too many times] produces a natural curiosity in regard to the objects of nature about him.

Manifestly the only right course is to furnish education to this curiosity which shall guide him in paths of righteousness and truth.

The most serious obstacle to the introduction of the sciences in the grades, is the lack of competent teachers. Teachers do not begin to specialize until they aspire to the high school, and therefore much of their information would be bookish and misleading, and better no teaching than poor teaching. A second obstacle to science study in the grades is lack of time in the crowded curriculum now imposed on the teachers. The mental effort necessary to crowd into a school day all that is expected of our grade teachers is conducive to mental waste instead of strength and relaxation.

In the high school we may expect more mature minds will be able to observe cause and effect to such an extent as to be able to classify phenomena which is the end of the disciplinary purpose of the study of the sciences.

The most desirable sciences from every point of view seem to be botany, physiology and physical geography. In botany material is everywhere abundant—collection and dissection involves little trouble and no necessity for killing; the laboratory study is not distasteful to any and the beauty revealed by the aid of the microscope is wonderful.

We are held in admiration by the wonderful harmony and delicateness of the meshes of expensive laces, and yet never has a lace been produced which can compare with the picture the microscope makes of a bundle of plant cells seen in a cross section of almost any woody stem.

The beauty of outline and varied tints of the orchids and pansies impose a task on our artists comparable to that of delineating the face of Christ whose creatures they are.

High School Notes.
Mr. Denison presented the cup to the Junior class on Thursday morning during the opening exercises with a well worded speech which was full of good thought and congratulation on the subject of athletics in general and football in particular.

The seniors held their banquet in Concordia hall last evening. They enjoyed the spread and toasts which were appropriate and full of fun.
The Junior class held its banquet in the Manual Training rooms last evening, of the High school which they decorated in a very tasty manner. Football was the topic of the evening and Mr. Ross Bump came in for a large share of the eulogies of the toasts, as it was he who so successfully made the "criss-cross" which netted the only score of the game.

The spirit shown between the High school classes in this contest for the Denison cup is commendable; there is always rivalry, but of a kind that stimulates rather than excites. This rivalry seems to have extended in the case of the Juniors and Seniors to the courtesies they show in the presence of each other. Monday morning the Juniors were greeted by the Seniors as "all right." The Juniors returned the compliment.

The lunch served by the pupils of the cooking classes is very well patronized and deserves praise for its wholesomeness and the way that it is served by the young ladies.

Messrs. Knox and Griffiths have finished making and tempering two steel hammers which will be exhibited soon in the windows of one of our merchants to show interested people the work being done in the Senior year of the Manual Training course.

The Junior and Senior classes have decided to close the football year with banquets at the Caledonian rooms.

Monday a letter was received from Mr. Allen Lovejoy at Yale university and was read by Mr. Mayne to the school. It was full of interest to all the pupils alike, who seemed to catch an inspiration to continue their education to the university, whenever they hear of the excitement and good times attendant upon college life.

The St. Paul Burns.
Alpena, Mich., Nov. 27.—The wooden steamer St. Paul, loaded with a cargo of coal, came into the bay shortly after noon with her after cabins all ablaze. The after cabins and the stern were burning fiercely. The fire is under control, and the tugs have towed the steamer to the mouth of the river, where she rests on the bottom. It is thought the hull can be saved without much damage, but the cabins are wrecked.

TRYING POSITION

"My position is a trying one" was the joking remark of the cloak model of a fashionable firm. But there is less jest than earnest in the statement. It is trying to be on the feet all day, to be reaching and stooping four after hour from morn until night. And that is a very meager outline of a business woman's day. With many such women the ordinary strain of labor is intensified and aggravated by a diseased condition of the delicate organs, and they become victims of that terrible backache, or blinding headache, which is so common among business women.

If you are bearing this burden, bear it no longer. For the backache, headache, nervousness and weakness which spring from a diseased condition of the womanly organs there is a sure cure in Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. Half a million women have been perfectly and permanently cured by this wonderful medicine.

"My niece was troubled with female weakness for about four years before I asked for your advice," writes Mr. J. W. McGregor, of 602 St. and Princeton Ave., Chicago, Ills. "You advised her to take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription which she did faithfully for nine months, and now we must acknowledge to you that she is a well woman. We cannot thank you enough for the cure."

Sick women can consult Dr. Pierce by letter free. Address, Buffalo, N. Y.

ENTERTAINING STRANGERS

There is something said in the Bible about entertaining strangers accompanied by the pleasant hint that in doing so "some have entertained angels unawares." The suggestion came from Saint Paul in a letter to one of the early churches, and was written at a time when the new church that he and his colleagues were working to establish, was very unpopular and extremely weak. The missionary churches in various localities, were men like Saint Paul himself, working without salary or compensation, for the establishing of a great truth, that should bless humanity for all time. Under these circumstances he realized the importance of entertainment, and the great good that might come to the church as a result. The "stranger" might be a despised heathen, inspired with the great truth, whose acquaintance would reveal an angel in disguise.

The committee of entertainment for the various churches, experienced a great deal of difficulty last week in finding people who were willing to entertain the guests of the Y. M. C. A. convention and it looked a little like a lack of hospitality. The old injunction of Saint Paul was either forgotten, or the people did not care to be annoyed with angel visitations. In any event the average home was not thrown open very cheerfully to the stranger.

This age is very practical and the conditions are different from those existing in the first century. There are well defined objections in the homes for the entertainment of religious conferences and conventions however meritorious they may be.

The arguments used in favor of this demand have weight and are perhaps not fully appreciated. It is considered an honor for a city to secure a convention like the one just closed. Not only that, but the meetings are very helpful to the people who attend and the influence exerted inspires new life and is felt for months to come. The speakers frequently enjoy a national reputation, the music is stirring and elevating, the churches are quickened, and the morals of the place are toned up and strengthened. All of which is good and no doubt the results are never fully appreciated.

The arguments on the other side also have merit. It is possible that between the two may exist a happy medium, that has not yet been discovered.

The average home is not a boarding house neither, is it a place where entertainment is furnished except to intimate friends, and this seldom includes lodging. The average housewife is a busy woman, frequently perplexed with the cares and drudgery of her own home. If she is unfortunate enough to be annoyed with a hired girl, she has discovered that the annoyance ceases if she presumes to invite company without consulting the domestic. If she has children they are not always in company attire, and under all circumstances she feels warranted in saying, "No I cannot entertain any angel unawares, and I should hardly feel like taking him even if he had wings."

This is not a lack of hospitality, it is simply tired human nature rebelling against adding to the burdens of every day toil the care of a stranger however worthy he may be.

The husband may work in the Y. M. C. A. but the wife presides, as she has a right to do in her own kingdom, the home. While the husband enjoys this kingdom with her, there are some things about it that he has learned to regard as sacred, and when she says "No," pleasantly, to what she regards as an intrusion, he is satisfied with the verdict.

It is just possible that there may be something wrong with the convention and ministerial assembly as it now exists.

There is a feeling of independence that comes to a delegate, whether layman or clergyman, who goes into a convention town with money in his pocket to pay his bills at a good hotel or boarding house, and the sort of feels that he is doing the Master's business on a business basis, touching shoulders for the time with the great busy world that don't know much about free entertainment.

Religion takes on dignity and commands respect, when it deals with practical questions in practical ways. The entertainment question confronts it, not only in Jamesville, but all over the land. The church is wise enough to settle it wisely, as it undoubtedly will.

George F. Washburn, the Boston reformer is out with a circular adressed "to the reform forces of the country," in which he compares Bryan to Lincoln, and urging the forming of a new party that shall take in all disgruntled elements. He thinks that Bryan could capture two-thirds of the democrats and one-third of the republicans in 1904, and with the populists the party would sweep the country. All machine politicians would go down before the blast, and the country would be redeemed from political thralldom. Mr. Washburn has a large head full of prunes.

Harry Farris, foreman of a wood-working establishment in Chicago, was brutally beaten while going to his work last Saturday morning. The deed was not committed for plunder or for personal revenge. He was shot in the back by a dastardly coward, who fled as soon as the shot was fired. Mr. Farris was guilty of being foreman in a factory that was obliged to hire non-union labor, because of the woodworkers' strike. It looks very much as though the union was responsible for his death.

Richard Croker is in London trying to forget himself and his late unpleasantness, while Bryan and Towne are taking advantage of his absence by a conference in Chicago. It may be Bryan and Towne in 1904, and then again it may be Towne and Bryan. Several things may happen while Croker is away. A leader and an issue are both in demand.

Ex-President Kruger may succeed in causing France considerable trouble. The French people are very impulsive, and Kruger appeals to their sympathies in a way that may result in sacrifice of better judgment.

The Harvard and Illinois universities will continue to do business, although the football course is a little off color.

Growing accounts from army officers in the island of Luzon, will induce the investment of American capital as soon as the rebellion is timber yield large profits.

Geo. H. Phillips, the corn king, is a large man, with P. D. Armour behind him.

GAME AT BELOIT ON THANKSGIVING

The football game at Beloit on Thanksgiving Day between Beloit and Knox colleges will be one of the most closely contested games of the season. Both teams are in fine condition and have a number of victories to their credit this year. They are evenly matched and are both confident of victory. John M. Hollister, athletic director at Beloit college, reports his team to be in the best of condition and is confident of winning the game by a large margin.

If the day is fine a large crowd is expected to attend. A reduced rate will be given on all railroads to all points within fifty miles of Beloit.

ENTERTAINED 70 AT EUCHE.

Mrs. E. A. Ripley and Miss Ruth Culver Thrown Open Their Home.

Mrs. E. A. Ripley and Miss Ruth Culver entertained about seventy ladies last evening at a 6-o'clock tea at their home, 354 Court street. It was followed by a few hours of six-handed euchre. The house was handsomely decorated with white chrysanthemums, palms ferns and other potted plants. The first prize, a decorated plate, was won by Mrs. Wm. Ruger; the second a beautiful Madonna, was awarded to Mrs. J. J. Cunningham. This is the third of a series of parties to be given by the hostesses of last night's affair.

MILLER HUTTON HAD A NARROW ESCAPE.

Miller Hutton the 12-year old son of William H. Hutton, 286 S. Main street met with an accident this morning that might have resulted fatally.

Young Hutton was riding in a lumber wagon and in some manner fell between the hind wheel and the box. The boy screamed lustily, but the farmer driving the wagon did not hear him until the wagon had gone some distance. When the wagon was stopped the wheel had to be removed before the boy could be extricated. He was taken into James A. Fithers' house and later to his own home. Dr. Woods was called and found the boy suffering from injury to the spine and other internal injuries.

Mrs. N. J. Casey, of 109 Prairie Ave., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills proved better than any other medicines I took for my kidneys. These organs troubled me off and on for some years. Backache was the chief symptom and often caused me to suffer severely. I tried a number of remedies but continued to grow worse instead of better. I was finally persuaded to try Doan's Kidney Pills and procured a box at the Peoples' Drug Co's. store. I only took them a few days when I felt better. ## COMMON COUNCIL IN REGULAR SESSION

CLAIM OF ROSE HAAG FOR $5,000 DAMAGES REFERRED.

Permission to Change a Portion of Court Street from Concrete to Macadam Foundation—South Second Street Bond Issue Ordered Sold to the Highest Bidder.

Mayor Richardson presided at a regular meeting of the common council last evening. The aldermen present were Hemming, Kothman, McLean, Judd, Hutchinson and Valentine. The journal of the last meeting was read and approved.

The claim of Rose Haag for $5,000 injuries received by falling on a defective sidewalk on South River St. near the Chinese laundry on October 9, was referred to the judiciary committee, who asked for further time to report which was granted.

The bond of H. J. Cunningham as school commissioner from the third ward was presented and referred to the judiciary committee who later reported it to be correct.

A petition from the property owners of property abutting on Court street from the easterly side of the Court street bridge to the westerly side of Main street asking that the specifications of that portion of the street be amended so as to substitute a macadam foundation for concrete foundation. The lateness of the season would prevent the street from being finished this fall if concrete was used as a foundation and this would cause great hardship and leave the street in poor repair. The highway committee reported favorably on the change and moved that a six inch macadam foundation be laid at a cost of $1.40 per square yard. Adopted.

The fire and water committee reported favorably on the petition of W. H. H. Macdon for permission to repair a building at 163 West Milwaukee street.

Alderman Valentine for the finance committee, reported favorably on a batch of bills, which were allowed.

It was ordered that the bonds issued for the improvement of South Second street, be sold to the highest bidder and the premium realized from the sale be credited to the property so assessed.

The city treasurer was instructed to transfer $22.80 from each of the Fourth and Fifth ward funds to the Third ward for tiling used in those wards and charged to the Third ward. Alderman Hutchinson presented an order extending the time for the completion of Dodge and Pleasant street until December 6 and Clark street until May, 1901. The order was adopted.

Alderman Hutchinson presented a resolution that the southerly one fourth of a certain highway known as George Place, in the Spring Brook addition, running from the McKee boulevard to Alphonse Place, be vacated, which was approved and passed.

The street commission was directed to serve a notice on the owners of lots 11, 12 and 15 in Riverside addition to build a standard sidewalk.

The street commissioner was directed to repair South High street, between Pleasant and Center streets.

Alderman Hutchinson asked that the lease with Peter L. and J. H. Myers of the building in the Second ward used as a polling booth be surrendered, upon their paying back to the city the rent on and after the adoption of this order.

Alderman Judd that the city attorney serve a notice on J. W. Carpenter to repair certain portions of the concrete sidewalk in the Court House park ruined while delivering coal at the court house.

On motion of Alderman Kothman the council adjourned.

TWO STEP FOR THE SINNISSIPPI CLUB

One of the attractions of the Sinissippi Golf Club's party on Thanksgiving night will be a two step written by Prof. J. S. Taylor of this city and dedicated to the Sinissippi Golf club. It is called the Sinissippi March and Prof. Taylor has arranged it for the orchestra in the form of a two step. It is a catchy piece of music and reflects much credit on the composer. Smith's orchestra have had the music for some time to become familiar with it and will play it at the party on Thursday night.

TELEPHONE WORK IS NEARLY DONE

The workmen employed by the Wisconsin Telephone company in putting in the new system of cables and poles expect to finish work in about three weeks. The work of connecting up the wires in the cables has commenced and a new eight hundred drop switch board is expected very soon. Workmen are now engaged in putting in a large switch board at Madison and as soon as the work is completed in that place they will come here and finish up the work in this city. When the new switch board is in place this company will have one of the most complete systems in the state.

THE JUDGE FOUND FOR THE DEFENDANT

Decision in the Case of Waufile Versus Barlass, Which Was Tried
Last Week.

Judge Fifield of the municipal court this morning rendered his decision in the action of F. M. Waufile against John Barlass which was tried last week in his court.

The facts in the case were that Waufile sold a corn binder for $100. Cargus is a tenant on the farm of John Barlass. Barlass has a mortgage on all of Cargus stock for about $1,000. Cargus sold some stock and presented the proceeds, $100, to Barlass with the request that he might use the money to pay Waufile. Cargus claims that Barlass promised to pay Waufile. Barlass claims that he agreed to try and settle with Waufile but could not do it, because Waufile would not allow a church bill. Barlass gave Cargus credit for $100 on the mortgage. Waufile sued Barlass claiming that he had an unconditional promise to pay him $100.

The decision of the court was that the money which was paid to Barlass by Cargus was money received for chattel mortgage property and that Barlass held the mortgage, which under our laws the legal title was in Barlass. That being Barlass' money there was no sufficient consideration to make any promise to pay Cargus' debt to Waufile. An unconditional promise to pay was not proved by a preponderance of evidence. Under the conditions mentioned Judge Fifield found for the defendant and ordered that costs be taxed against the plaintiff.

M. P. Richardson appeared for Barlass and E. D. McGowan for Waufile.

SERIES OF LECTURES ON SOCIAL SCIENCE

Subject Discussed at the Interesting Meeting Last Evening Was,
"Man as an Animal."

The first of a course of lectures on Social Science to be given by Mrs. Daniel Folkmar occurred last evening in Wheeler's office in the postoffice. The class is limited to twenty members and the circle is complete, although a number were unavoidably absent from the initial meeting. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Wheeler, Mr. and Mrs. George Cuddeback, Rev. A. G. Wilson, Jas. Harris and Miss Ida Harris, Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Keroh and Miss Nellie Chitenden.

The subject of last evening's study was man as an animal. The leader took as her starting point the single cell, which necessarily suggests a rather remote date. About this original cell she grouped the probable conditions which would force evolution along the lines which have been followed in attaining the present result.

Necessarily the first evening's work was preliminary and explanatory, devoted mainly to definition and general principles. It foreshadowed the work to be done and the method of that treatment.

Mrs. Folkmar furnished her pupils with a type written outline of the lecture to serve as a guide for subsequent study. This will be the basis of the first half-hour's work at the next meeting—questions on the ground already passed over.

Mrs. Folkmar is a lady of very pleasant manners. Her mind is of a logical order and she possesses the gift of so imparting information as to be readily grasped by the student.

The Milwaukee News of last Saturday has the following:

John Winans of Janesville is very enthusiastic for the outlook for the democratic party and believes it will carry the country in 1904.

Mr. Winans, who, with his wife, are guests at the Pfister, in an interview this morning said:

"I believe the republican party will attempt to carry matters with a high hand during the next four years and that before President McKinley's term is over the people will be so completely disgusted with his rule that they will turn to the democratic party for relief.

The democrats have by no means been swept out of existence by their present defeat but will be found on earth as strong as ever in the next presidential campaign."

Asked if he believed that Bryan would be renominated in 1904, Mr. Winans said:

"Bryan is a great man—a very great man. He has shown that both times he has run. It would, however, I think, be better to nominate some one else in the next campaign."

Mr. Winans has always been a prominent Rock county democrat, and was a prominent member of the legislature of 1892.

CARRY MAIL ON THE NEW RURAL ROUTE

H. S. Ames of This City, Has Signed a Contract to Do the Work—
Line of the Route.

H. S. Ames of this city has signed a contract to carry the mail on the new rural route from this city west to Fishers' corners from thence north to the Evansville road, east on the Evansville road to the Rock River house thence south to the city. The route is not yet in operation but will be in a short time. The government route agent was here a short time ago and made a contract with Ames to carry the mail through his territory. The compensation is $500 per year. Ames will leave the city daily in the morning after the morning mail is delivered and will return in the afternoon in time for mail he has picked up at the different houses to be sent on the evening trains.

Mr. Ames expects to enter upon his duties as soon as the postoffice department formally establishes the route.

The route as laid out by the government will be about twenty miles in length and about one hundred farmers will be benefited by it. The compensation of $500 a year is quite a sum when taken as a whole but when it is seen that it amounts to about $1.60 per day it does not seem to be much of a compensation for a man and team who travel from twenty to twenty-five miles a day and have charge of valuable mail for whose safe delivery they are responsible. Still there are plenty of men anxious to get a chance to do the work.

Mr. Ames expects to enter upon his duties as soon as the postoffice department formally establishes the route.

The route as laid out by the government will be about twenty miles in length and about one hundred farmers will be benefited by it. The compensation of $500 a year is quite a sum when taken as a whole but when it is seen that it amounts to about $1.60 per day it does not seem to be much of a compensation for a man and team who travel from twenty to twenty-five miles a day and have charge of valuable mail for whose safe delivery they are responsible. Still there are plenty of men anxious to get a chance to do the work.

LATE TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

KRUGER DRAFTS DEMANDS.

Document Submitted to Minister Delcasse.

BURGHERS HOLD A COUNCIL.

Transvaal President Devotes Part of Day to Tour of Paris and Receiving Visitors—Called on by Cabinet—The Boer War.

Paris, Nov. 27.—After a consultation with Fischer, Wessels, Wolmarans, and Leyds at a veritable Boer cabinet meeting in the Hotel Scribe, Kruger drew up a draft of a preliminary proposition to be submitted first to Minister Delcasse, although the demand is for intervention and is addressed to President Loubet. Dr. Leyds at once left the hotel with the document and drove to the Quay d'Orsay, where he was immediately received by Minister Delcasse, with whom he had a long conference. Minister Delcasse, while not willing to take the lead in any intervention, informed Dr. Leyds that in accord with the view of Russia, France was willing to listen to any demands to act as a passive mediator, as this attitude had been forced on the cabinet by Loubet. Henri Rochefort now proposes an international assemblage of journalists of the world to map out a plan of campaign in favor of the Boers, to raise funds, and to charter ships to carry volunteers to the Transvaal. To avoid the spying of the governments Rochefort suggests The Hague as a fit meeting place, as it will be under the protection of the Dutch Queen.

Will Attend Official Reception.
Kruger has decided while in Paris to visit the Hotel de Ville, where an official reception will be prepared, the date being set for Wednesday afternoon. The Boer president visited the exposition and was received by Director Picard and his staff. He ascended the Eiffel tower, which seemed to astonish him, and then went to the Boer farm in the Transvaal pavilion. He was much moved by the sight of the farm and touched by the tributes of homage he saw on all sides. Mr. Kruger stopped and gazed at his own bust, which was profusely decorated with flowers and other tributes of admiration. Behind the bust was a Bible, lying open, and Mr. Kruger read a verse from it. He afterwards examined the Boer farm. He saluted the statue of Villebois Mareuil, who died in the Transvaal. In the afternoon he received various delegates, and, among others, Maud Gonne and her companions, who were delighted at their reception.

Boer Chief in Good Health.
The Boer president is in good health and entirely recovered from the fatigue of his voyage, and is so encouraged by the enthusiasm of his reception that he appears several years younger. All the French ministers have now called on Kruger, who this afternoon in return sent a card to each member of the cabinet by M. van den Hoeven. Tomorrow Minister Delcasse will personally receive Kruger.

Manifestation Is Checked.
Bands of Kruger enthusiasts attempted to start an anti-English manifestation today and marched down the streets shouting, "Down with Chamberlain!" "Long live Kruger!" By order of the premier the police charged the crowd and seventeen arrests were made. It is now denied that Morinaud will ask the chamber to vote an expression of sympathy for Kruger, as Waldeck-Rousseau has begged him to desist, declaring there would be terrible consequences from such a measure. The premier really fears a conflict with England. On the other hand, the Presse says: "France was never so civilly treated by the English as now when she has asserted her right to acclaim Kruger as she pleases. This should convince the government of the folly of Europe's trembling policy before England."

Kitchener Shows No Mercy.
London, Nov. 27.—Details of Kitchener's plan of operations against the Boers are cabled by the Daily Mail's Pietermaritzburg correspondent, who says the new colonies are to be divided into circumscribed areas and a mobile force apportioned to each, with infantry, to keep open lines of communication. Ox wagons are to be dispensed with and only light carts employed to carry ammunition. All Boers and neutrals captured are to be taken to the coast and kept there until the country is cleared. The work is expected to be long and arduous, lasting possibly for years, and certainly for months.

President Sends a Bouquet.
Washington, D. C., Nov. 27.—The president of the United States tried to brighten the last hours of an unfortunate boy who died today in a Washington hospital. The president sent a large and beautiful bouquet of flowers which reached the bedside some hours before the boy died. The patient was William Kurz, son of a poor widow in a Maryland town. He was ambitious and came to Washington to get work. After tramping for days about the city his persistence got him employment at the government printing office. A few days later he was fatally hurt in an elevator shaft.

Heavy Damage at Lorain.

Lorain, Ohio, Nov. 27.—The storm wrought $100,000 damage to this harbor. Six hundred feet of the east government pier were swept away and the sea had full sway through the gap, washing away the foundation on the opposite side of the river.

Schooner Sinks in Lake Erie.
Kingsville, Ont., Nov. 27.—An unknown schooner is sunk on the middle ground off Point Pelee, and the sailors are lashed to the rigging. Since Sunday morning the tug Home Rule from Amherstburg has been trying to rescue the men, but there is such a high sea running that its efforts have been fruitless.

Lives Lost in Tennessee.
Memphis, Tenn., Nov. 27.—Menger accounts of casualties by flood are coming in from west Tennessee. A few miles north of Dyersburg a woman and two children were thrown into deep backwater and all were drowned. At the south fork of the Forked Deer river a track hand of the Illinois Central was drowned.

Hangs by a Coattail.
Chicago, Nov. 27.—At the top of a blast furnace 100 feet from the ground Andrew Anderson hung for an hour yesterday with his life depending upon the fragile fabric of his coattail, which had fastened itself on a slender bolt that projected two inches. Momentarily Anderson expected his garment to give way, but it was of strong material and held until he was finally rescued. Anderson was placed in his perilous position by the collapse of a scaffold in the yards of the Illinois Steel company in South Chicago. Three fellow-workmen who were with him at the time were dashed to the ground and badly injured. Two others were fatally injured at the same furnace by the breaking of a crane.

Dowie Lace-makers Admitted.
Washington, D. C., Nov. 27.—The treasury department to-day decided to admit the lace-makers and their families who were brought to this country by "Dr." Alexander Dowie, the "divine healer," and the founder of Zion City, Ill., to teach others the art of lacemaking.

This is a reversal of the action of the Philadelphia immigration officials, who had decided that the lace-makers should not be admitted to this country.

Poison Mystery in Leroy, Kas.
Burlington, Kas., Nov. 27.—Mystery surrounds the death of Mrs. Charles H. Crowl, which occurred at Leroy. A coroner's inquest developed the fact that poison caused death, but not who gave it to her. No one has been arrested.

CHINA CRISIS AT HAND.

Terms Foreign Ministers Have Agreed Upon at Peking.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 27.—Details of the terms the foreign ministers have agreed upon at Peking have come to hand and when most of the other while the United States was seeking to induce a moderation of the de-governments had given encouragement to the American plan for settling with China. Mr. Conger joined the other ministers in adopting demands that practically do not differ from those suggested several weeks ago. As a result the Washington administration tonight is alternating between two courses that are open to it: One is to assent to the demands formulated by the ministers in order to maintain the concert of action so essential to the settlement of the trouble; the other to repudiate Mr. Conger's action, reject the demands, withdraw from the concert of nations and institute independent negotiations. Washington feels that the United States is being drawn irresistibly toward assenting to the demands. The president does not seem willing to abandon the concert, believing he can best serve the ends he is striving for by remaining in.

The terms agreed to Saturday at Peking include:

1. Execution by the Chinese government of eleven Chinese princes and officials already designated.
2. Indemnity, which shall include satisfaction of claims arising out of the murder of missionaries and damages done their property and damage done to property of other foreigners.

How a Woman Suffers.

HOWELL, IND., Nov. 28
I will always praise Wine of Cardui. It does me more good than all the medicines I have ever taken in my life. Please send a book about female diseases to the ladies whose names I enclose.

Mrs. MINNIE STODGHILL.

Wine of Cardui

It isn't necessary for a woman to give particulars. When she says she has "female troubles", other women know what that means. It means days and nights of endless suffering. It means headaches which no tongue can describe. It means that terrible bearing and dragging down in the lower abdomen. It means agonizing backache, and shoulder ache, and arm ache, and aches in the lower limbs. It means nerves on edge—the blues—despondency and loss of hope. It means debilitating drains that the doctors call leucorrhoea. It means martyrdom—sometimes even death seems preferable. And still Wine of Cardui will utterly put those diseases and pains to rout. It has cured thousands of cases when nothing else on earth would. To the budding woman, to the bride, to the wife, to the expectant mother, to those going through the Change of Life, this Vegetable Wine is a blessing.
